

*pronounced jzish.

Jzzsh* is an new combo out of Edinburgh.

Robert Pettigrew (piano) - doyen of the Edinburgh Jazz Scene, with an extensive background in theatre and jazz, and composition.

Robin Mason (cello) - composer, jazz and classical/avant-garde player.

Iain Carleton (guitar) - jazz tutor at Fife College.

Callum Moore (sax) - up-and coming whizz.

Jim Bryce (bass, keyboards and skat and principal writer) – composer for jazz, rock, folk, brass band, orchestra, children's radio, comedy and musical theatre (his musical “Whisky Kisses” played the season at Pitlochry Rep 2014)

Des Travis (drums) - unique wielder of the sticks 'n the brushes.

Out of these diverse backgrounds and styles we've created something unique, spanning stomp to samba, cool laid-back to chromatic, all tinged with jazz – in other words, Jazz(ish) – hence the name.
